

DIARY - CZECH REPUBLIC

Tuesday 12th November 2013

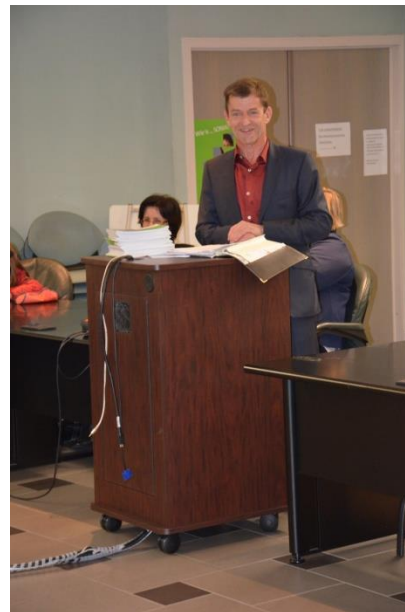

We arrived safely at the station Gent Sint-Pieters, Philippe drove us to the hotel. In the evening we had dinner in Het Vrijdagsgevoel with all the other participants. We introduced ourselves and spent a pleasant evening together.

Wednesday 13th November 2013

In the morning we went to Het Molenschip and visited classrooms and watched the children in their lessons. After that we also visited the boarding school. In the afternoon we exchanged pictures and little presents and discussed the program. We had to reshuffle the tasks and the mobilities and we agreed to organize the next mobility in our school in the Czech Republic.

After a short walk back to the centre of Evergem we had dinner and then we met the local authorities on the reception at the townhall. On our way back we took pictures of the enlightened city.

Thursday 14th November 2013

The children in the school prepared a Puppet theater for us - they introduced all the participating countries by means of puppets. Everybody enjoyed the play.

In the second part of the day we learned how to work with the twinspace and the diary and tried new communication tools like Mailvu, Voki, Skype, Flash Meeting etc. We made a VOKI introduction and put it to the Twinspace.

After leaving the school we visited a puppet player in Alijn museum in Ghent and he explained some facts about the theatre and let us try to use the puppets.

In the evening we had dinner in Turkish restaurant.

Friday 15th November 2013

We had a last meeting at school and made last arrangements. At 2 p.m. we had an animated visit in the old Ghenter city with tasting some typical Belgian food. In the evening we had dinner in town.

Saturday 16th November 2013

At 9 a.m. the school bus took us to Brussels, where we visited the international puppet museum and Mini Europe.

After that we had a sightseeing tour round Brussels by the school bus and guided walk through the historical center of Brussels.

Late in the evening we had our last dinner in Amadeus restaurant.

Sunday 17th November 2013

Everyone checked out of the hotel, said good bye to the others, took the heavy luggage full of Belgian chocolates and traveled home.

Thank to Ellen, Hilde, Bianca, Monica and Philippe for their work :-)
